Reason for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the closes prior art of record (Jones et al U.S. patent No. 6,804,330) does not teach nor suggest in detail "a multi-user database system that comprises at least one processor; at least one network interface coupled to the at least one processor, the at least one network interface configured to receive transactions from a plurality of users, the transactions including session maintenance transactions and data requests; an event table to store an event log of the session maintenance transactions; an accounting table to store data associated with the data requests; a session table derived from the event table and the accounting table, the session table to store resource usage data associated with at least one user session; wherein the resource usage data includes processor usage of the at least one processor and an input/output usage; and a request table derived from the event table and the accounting table, to store resource usage data associated with the data requests, wherein the request table is accessible to identify data requests that utilize a selected level of computing resources." in combination with all the elements of each independent claim as argued by Applicant (see page 8 and 9 of applicant's argument dated 03/27/2008 as well as the enabling portions of Applicant's specification, pages 3-8). Applicant's amendment to the independent claims to incorporate previously indicated allowable subject matter is appreciated in the reply dated 08/29/2008. So as indicated by the above statements, Applicant's arguments have been considered persuasive, in light of the claim limitations as well as the enabling portions of the specification.

Art Unit: 2443

2. The dependent claims further limit the independent claims and are considered allowable on the same basis as the independent claims as well as for the further limitations set forth.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. Claims 1-5, 8-15, 19-23, and 27-30 are allowed. Renumbered 1-22.
